

31

Provided also, That this Act, or any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein Contained, Declared, or Mentioned, shall not extend, nor in any wise be Construed, to extend, to Bar, Hindrer, or Foreclose the Heirs, or Administratrix of Cornet Simon Hatt, but that they and either of them may have, receive, and enjoy their, and ~~either~~^{equall} of their full and equall Proportion of the Lands and Estates forfeited in Ireland, with other Officers of this present Army, for and in Satisfaction for his Service done in Ireland, for the Parliament against the Rebels, before the Fifth day of June, 1649. Together with such just and due Debts, as are, or shall be made to appear, that the Administratrix to the aforesaid Simon Hatt, hath lent towards the Relief and Strengthning of this Commonwealths Forces in Ireland, in the time of their greatest Necessities and Dangers there: or that the said Heirs and Administratrix of the said Simon Hatt, may receive Satisfaction in Lands in the County of Dublin, in equall Proportions, with other Widows whose Husbands have done faithfull Service in the Army in Ireland, since the Fifth of June, 1649. Any thing in this Act, or any other Law contained to the contrary thereto in any wise norwithstanding.